TEACHERS (for me important teachers)

Gèrard Schaub, former solo flutist in Gothenburg Symphony Orchestra, Sweden, was a very important teacher for me. I was good fortunate to be able to study for Mr Schaub a couple of years in Gothenburg.

Don Cambell visited Stockholm for one day and I got the opportunity to meet him. He is a huge inspiration and I was glad to be able to listen, ask questions and discuss his books and my own cases.

MUSIC PROJECTS

- Duo Grenadille Susanne Sondered flute
Mikael Sondered bass clarinet
- Church music I have always worked with church musicians, organ players, both in ceremoniels as well as in recitals.

MUSIC THERAPY

In my job as musicpedagog I have met so many children with different kinds of disabilities, seeking their way into music and wanting to express themselves despite their "handicaps". I have educated myself further to be able to help them better. Today, musictherapy is a part of my job at Nybro Music and Culture School as well as outside, in my own practice.

LANGUAGES

- Swedish Mother tongue
English Talking, writing and understanding very well
French just a bit

LEISURE ACTIVITIES

I love to read a good book in my spare time, and I also write poems and novels. For the moment, I'm working on a research project, a historical book, about my family and older relatives in Gothenburg, Sweden.
I exercise with long walks several times a week.
My friends and family are a very important part in my life.
